IN MEMORIAM

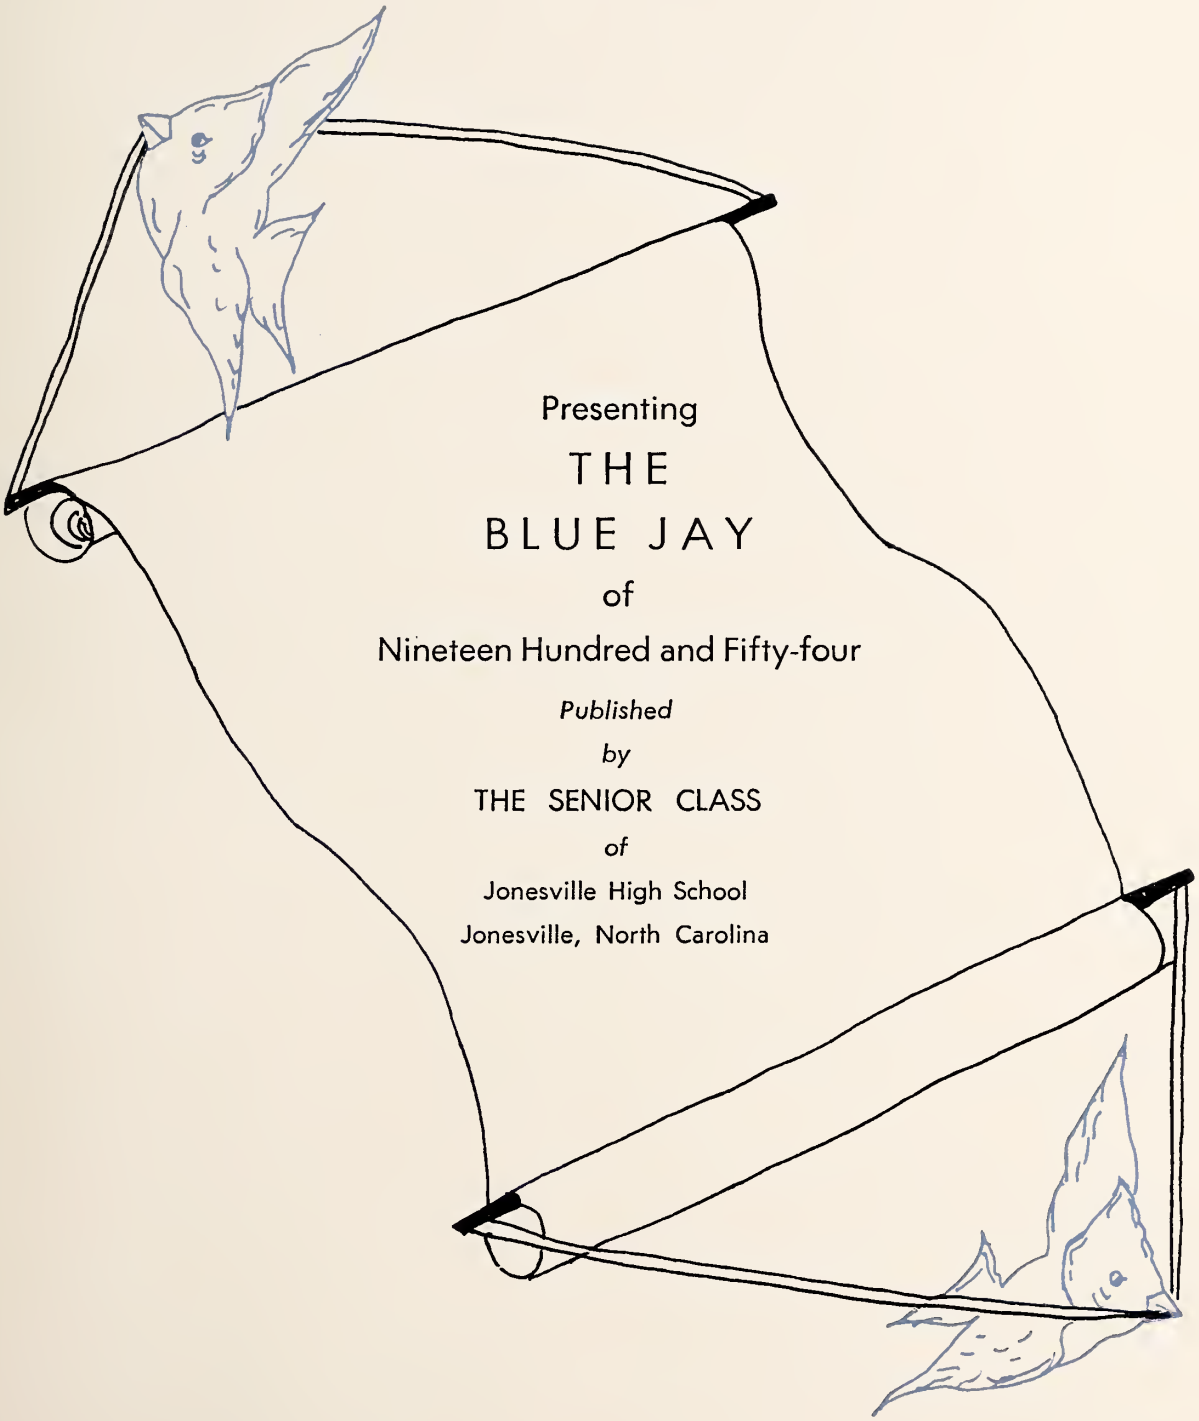

On Jonuory 16, 1954, the sudden deoth of our beloved principol, George Z. Ingle, brought deep sorrow to our heorts.

Coming here unknown to us three yeors ogo, Mr. Ingle soon won the respect and love of not only the students but the whole community. In him we had o friend who considered our problems his own. His greotest concern was for our welfare ond success, and he wos never too busy to offer encourogement ond guidance.

As principol of Jonesville High School, Mr. Ingle worked untiringly for the improvement of the school ond of the community in general. He had o high regord for othletics ond promoted both locol and stote-wide programs. Hoving porticipated octively in boseboll ond footboll ond served as o cooch, he considered good sportsmanship of prime importonce ond olwoys tried to impress his students with his philosophy, which is optly expressed in the quototion: "We do not want men who will lie down brovely to die, but men who will fight valiantly to live. Winning is not everything; it is for better to play the gome squorely ond lose thon to win ot the socrifice of on ideol."

We shall sorely miss the cheerful informal visits Mr. Ingle mode to our clossrooms, the friendly chats in his office, and the kindly odvice which wos ours for the osking. In tribute to him we shall endeovor to keep olive the spirit he brought to Jonesville High School.

DEDICATION

For Willingness to listen and counsel at all times, for the advancement of your departments, for showing a personal interest in the pupils' welfare and progress, for just being your kind and cheerful self, we, the Senior Class of 1954, dedicate this, the fourth edition of The Blue Jay, to

MRS. OLA W. HENDREN

and

MR. EDWARD MILLER

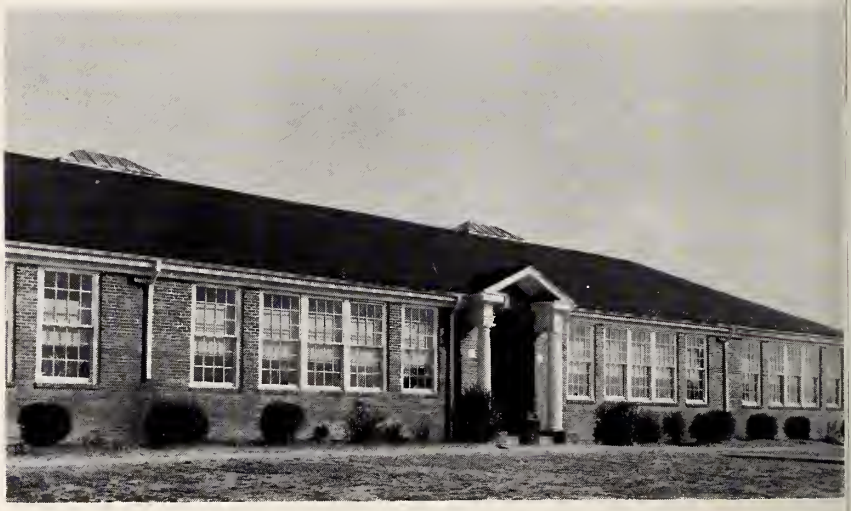

FOREWORD

As we the seniors of 1954 prepare to step into the world, we would like to leave the "Blue Jay" a brief summary of our last year at Jonesville High School as an interlude in your memory.

To our parents we give our thanks for their courage and patience when ours failed, and to the faculty, thanks for their co-operation and assistance in untold measure.

HISTORY

As we the Seniors of 1953-54 look back upon our past school life we can look upon it as a four act play, titled, "The Fight For Knowledge." Even though we became discouraged at times there are still many thoughts of the good times.

The rehearsal began in September, 1942. We were a group of scared, excited, and happy youngsters. It was an exciting time the first day of school each year for eight years finding out who our teacher would be—the person who would guide us through the rehearsal from year to year. In the winter of the eighth year the eighth grade boys' and girls' basketball teams won the P. T. A. Tournament which was held at the Elkin Gym. The teams were coached by Mrs. Edna Reece and Mr. Reid Lowder.

In the spring of the eighth year the class enjoyed a trip to Chapel Hill. There they visited the Planetarium and the Football Stadium.

The curtain opened for the first act in September, 1949, as we, 67 strong, began our studies in high school. We were so scared of initiation that we spent many sleepless nights and the promise of a party to follow didn't help at all. We can now look back upon that day and night and see what fun it was.

As it came time for the second act we found we had a cast of 59. With the help of our new principal, Mr. George Z. Ingle, the activity bus, which Jonesville needed very much, was coming into view. It was up to the students to raise enough money to pay for it. The idea of each home room paying fifty dollars was decided upon. With the help of Mrs. Ola Hendren the girls gave a supper which paid for their part of the bus.

We began to think of the Junior-Senior Banquet during this act because we knew the burden of paying for it would be upon us during our next act.

Curtain time was called for the third act. We found we now had a cast of 56. Our first thought was "How can we raise enough money for the Junior-Senior Banquet." With success in our money raising projects we gave the "Little Holland Bonket," May 8, 1953 at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A. The Junior Play, "Bound to Marry," was a great success.

The thought of ordering our class rings lingered in our minds until the day we ordered them. Then we could hardly wait until the day for them to arrive. When the long awaited day came, we were a happy class showing off our new rings.

We were the staff of the school paper, "The Jonesville Hi Bugle."

We were very proud of Tommye Cheek who made the All-State Basketball Team. Proudness also filled our hearts as the football team had an undefeated season, and our class furnished two excellent cheerleaders.

As the curtain opens on the last act we are thinking about the annual, which is put out by the seniors each year.

The initiating of the Freshmen was carried out in the theme of a "Zoo." There was a party that night for the freshmen who had had so much to go through with that day.

The Seniors seem to get excited every time Washington is mentioned for we are planning to go in April. The "Christmas Queen" was started this year to help raise money for that trip. The queen is elected like the Halloween Queen. Linda Reece was Jonesville High's first Christmas Queen.

As thoughts of graduation come to our mind it makes us happy, but sad, too, when we think it may be the last time we will all be together.

As we finish our play we now have a cast of 50.

I, Colene Kimmer, leave my nice personality to Betty Jane McBride.
I, Phyllis Lashmit, leave my ability to sit quietly in class and say nothing to George Gentry.
I, Gayle Macy, leave my short hair cut to Charles Barnett.
I, I. W. Macy, leave my ability to get along with the faculty to J. A. Cook.
I, Donald Mann, leave my love for Agriculture to James Collins.
I, Maybert Martin, leave my love for Home Ec. to Joan Johnson.
I, Charles Mathis, refuse to leave anything because I need everything I have.
I, Jimmy Mathis, leave my athletic ability to Larry Triplett.
I, Sue Myers, leave my smallness to Joe Lovelace.
I, Donnie Nelson, leave my worn-out basketball shoes to Betty Triplett.
I, Louise Nicks, leave my ability to speak my feelings to Frances Gilley.
I, Bonnie Pardue, leave my love for Mrs. Holcomb to Kattie Lee Evans.
I, Gene Pardue, leave my curly hair to J. B. Ireson.
I, R. J. Pardue, don't have anything to leave.
I, Jimmy Pinnix, leave my independent ways to Bill Waldrup.
I, Linda Reece, leave my beautiful figure to Carol Minick.
I, Glenn Roberts, leave my drawing ability to Roger Myers.
I, Dewitt Shaffner, leave my love for Mr. Miller to Wayne Pardue.
I, Inez Simmons, leave my temper to Carol Holcomb.
I, Thomas Stroud, leave my dark romantic ways to Bobby Armstrong.
I, Shirley Temple, leave my short legs to Sarah Pardue.
I, Donald Triplett, leave my sense of humor to Donnie Brown.
I, Carol Vestal, leave my love for driving a car to Pat Pearson.
I, David Vestal, leave my handsome looks to Leo Wagoner.
I, Glenda Vestal, leave my dignity to Pat Shoemaker.
I, Ollie Mae Vestal, leave my smiles to Phyllis Johnson.
I, Alfred Wagoner, leave my girl catcher voice to Monroe Spainhour.
I, Charles Weatherman, just leave.
I, J. D. Weatherman, leave my black haired girls to J. W. Cheek.
I, Shirley Winters, leave my sweet little ways to Mary Burcham.

PROPHECY

Since our graduation from ole J. H. S. ten years have passed. The other day I received a letter from one of my old friends, Dr. Linda Reece, who is teaching English at Columbia University. She asked me about the Seniors of '54 and what they are doing these days. I took time off from my position as editor of the Jonesville Enterprise and wrote her a brief report about her former classmates and the vocations that they had chosen. This is what I wrote:
My Dear Dr. Reece:

In answer to your request I am sending you the latest "dope" on our classmates. I'm sure you will agree that most of them have turned out to be very successful.

James Holleman is assistant basketball coach at Appalachian State. Cecil Ireson and Dizz Gilliam are the stars of the Los Angeles Rams. Jim Mathis has filled the shoes left vacant by Charlie Justice of the Washington Redskins. Tommye Cheek and David Vestal are directors of sports at the local "Y." Pauline Gilliam is the private secretary to the President of Chatham Mfg. Co. Alfred Wagoner is a member of Wally Fowler's Oak Ridge Quartet. Michael Eskridge and Donnie Triplett are lieutenants in the Army. Walter DeHart is happily married . . . he has seven young 'uns, and 5,000 pheasants. Sherrill Groce finally married her French pen pal and they are now the proud parents of six little Frenchmen. Phyllis Lashmit and her husband, Marvin, live up in Wilkes where they are getting rich off "Moonshine." Their neighbors, Sue Myers and her husband, Ted, are in the chicken business.

Shirley Winters is manager of Roses 5 and 10. Loretta Gentry is driving a truck for McLean Trucking Co. Hilda Dowell is private secretary to J. Edgar Hoover. Mary Ann Hagwood is Governor of North Carolina; she is the first lady to hold this position. Colene Kimmer recently returned from New Jersey, where she was a finalist in the Miss America contest. Nurses Louise Hicks, Carol Vestal, and Sue Haynes of Morganton are caring for one of my old friends, "Tip" Hemric, a teacher at Reynolds High, who recently became ill. I. W. Macy, Donald Mann, and Gayle Macy are teaching at State College. Believe it or not, Bonnie Pardue is still single, although she has really been chased since she was in the Miss North Carolina contest in '58. "Skerby" Jo Evans has made history by swimming the English Channel both ways—without stopping. Jim Pinnix owns a huge cattle ranch in Texas. Dewitt Shaffner is Yadkin County's largest tobacco producer. Ollie Mae Vestal is manager of the Yadkin Bloomer Factory. Maybert Martin has finally captured Fred and is living in Atlanta where she is teaching French.

Several of our class mates are TV stars. Ed Evans and Earl Campbell are panelists on "What's My Line." Thomas Stroud is a little Godfrey. Donnie Nelson and Glenda Vestal are two of Jackie Gleason's pretty girls. Inez Simmons is seen and heard regularly over the "Voice of Firestone." Shirley Temple has won a Pulitzer Prize for her novel, "The Vase." Frances Anderson is in the cast of a current Broadway hit. "Landy" Weatherman is flying a plane for Piedmont Airlines. His co-pilot is Gene Pardue. Bill Haynes has a daily program over WBTV where he is director of sports. Charles Bryant is a professor of mechanical engineering at State College. Eugene Ferguson is owner of the largest apple orchard east of the Mississippi. His manager, J. D. Weatherman, told me that Eugene is worth over a million nowadays. R. J. Pardue is the owner of the largest furniture store in western North Carolina. Charles Holcomb is peddling frog legs.

I really must close now. I have to catch a plane for Hollywood to attend the wedding of a friend. You probably have learned from the newspapers that Marilyn Monroe has announced her engagement to movie star Glen Roberts.

Your classmate and friend,
CHARLES MATHIS
